YOUR EMPLOYER’S RESPONSIBILITY

Your employer is required to:

1. Apply the North Carolina Regulations for Protection Against Radiation (10A NCAC 15) to work involving radioactive materials and/or sources of radiation;
2. Post or otherwise make available to you a copy of the Radiation Protection Commission regulations, certificates, licenses or registrations, and the operating procedures which apply to the work you perform, and explain their provisions to you; and
3. Post Notices of Violation involving radiological working conditions and orders.

REPORTS ON YOUR RADIATION EXPOSURE HISTORY

1. The Radiation Protection Commission regulations require that your employer give you a written report if you receive an exposure in excess of any applicable limit as set forth in the regulations or in the license. The basic limits for exposure to employees are set forth in 10A NCAC 15 .1604, .1609 and .1610. These rules specify limits on exposure to radiation and to concentrations of radioactive material in air.
2. If you work where personnel monitoring is required, and if you request information on your radiation exposures,
   (a) Your employer must give you a written report of your radiation exposures upon termination of your employment, and
   (b) Your employer must advise you annually of your exposure to radiation.

POSTING REQUIREMENT

Copies of this notice must be posted in a sufficient number of places in every establishment where employees are employed in activities licensed or registered, pursuant to 10A NCAC 15 .0200 and .0300, by the N.C. Department of Health and Human Services, to permit employees working in or frequenting any portion of a restricted area to read and observe on the way to or from any particular work location to which the document applies.

WHAT IS COVERED BY THESE REGULATIONS

1. Limits on exposure to radiation and radioactive materials in restricted and unrestricted areas;
2. Measures to be taken after accident exposure;
3. Personnel monitoring, surveys, and equipment;
4. Caution signs, labels and safety interlock equipment;
5. Exposure records and reports;
6. Options for workers regarding agency inspections; and
7. Related matters.

YOUR RESPONSIBILITY AS A WORKER

For your own protection and the protection of your co-workers, you should familiarize yourself with the provisions of the Radiation Protection Commission regulations and the operating procedures which apply to the work you perform.

NOTICE TO EMPLOYEES

Standards for Protection Against Radiation (Section .1600); Notices: Instructions and Reports to Workers (Section .1000); Employee Protection

INSPECTIONS

All licensed or registered activities are subject to inspection by representatives of N.C. Department of Health and Human Services. In addition, any worker or representative of workers who believes that there is a violation of the N.C. Radiation Protection Act, the regulations issued thereunder, or the terms of the employer’s license or registration with regard to radiological working conditions in which the worker is engaged, may request an inspection by sending a notice of the alleged violation to: Section Chief, Radiation Protection Section, 1645 Mail Service Center, Raleigh, NC 27699-1645. The request must set forth the specific grounds for the notice and signed by the employee or the representative of the employee. The agency will make all reasonable efforts to protect your identity where appropriate and possible. During inspections, agency inspectors may confer privately with workers; any worker may bring to the attention of the inspectors any past or present condition which he or she believes contributed to or caused any violation as described above.

OTHER EMPLOYEE PROTECTIONS

Federal Law prohibits an employer from firing or otherwise discriminating against you for bringing safety concerns to the attention of your employer or the N.C. Radiation Protection Section. Your employer cannot fire you or discriminate against you with respect to pay, benefits, or working conditions because you help the N.C. Radiation Protection Section or raise a safety issue or otherwise engage in protected activities. If you feel that you have been discriminated against for identifying violations or safety concerns, you may file a complaint with the Employment Discrimination Bureau of the North Carolina Department of Labor (800) 625-2267 or http://www.nclabor.com. They will advise you of the proper procedures to file a complaint.
